Rhonda Luther Elected to IHCA Board of Directors

For Immediate Release
June 29, 2009

SPRINGFIELD – Imboden Creek Health Services Chief Operating Officer Rhonda S. Luther was recently elected to serve on the Illinois Health Care Association (IHCA) board of directors.

IHCA, a non-profit organization that represents over 480 long term care facilities in Illinois, is governed by an 11-member board of directors. Ms. Luther will serve as Nursing Facility Second Vice-President.

Prior to becoming Imboden Creek’s chief operating officer in 2004, Ms. Luther served as Imboden Creek Living Center’s administrator, a position she accepted in 1994. During her time at Imboden, Ms. Luther obtained skilled licensure and Medicare accreditation for the facility, acquired the condominiums required to create the Imboden Creek Villas and oversaw the design and building of Imboden Creek Gardens Assisted Living. Ms. Luther has also worked professionally as an elder abuse investigator and hospital discharge planner.

Ms. Luther holds a bachelor’s degree in family sciences from Eastern Illinois University and a master’s degree in gerontology from the University of Illinois at Springfield. She is a member of the Illinois Nursing Home Administrator’s Association, and serves on the advisory board of the Macon County Health Department. She resides in Forsyth with her husband, Rob Luther, and their children, Alexandria and Noah.

“We are proud to have Rhonda join the board,” said Dave Voepel, executive director of IHCA. “Her knowledge and experience in long term care make her an outstanding addition.”
