Session Overview

This interactive workshop will help you prepare to make the necessary changes to comply with the new Requirements of Participation (RoP).

At the conclusion of this session participants should be able to:

- Recognize the key changes to the Federal Requirements
- Identify the necessary action they must take within their center to successfully comply with the new regulations
- Integrate learning into an Action Plan that can be initiated within their setting

Presenters

Bill Bell has been the Regulatory Director at IHCA since October of 2013. Prior to that, Bill worked for more than 30 years within the Illinois Department of Public Health where he held various positions within the Office of Health Care Regulation, including nearly 15 years as the Deputy Director over the entire office.

Lisa Bridwell is a Project Specialist for Telligen. Her professional experience includes social services, operations and quality improvement. She has participated in health care research projects addressing quality of life in Illinois and Washington D.C. As a consultant to nursing homes, Lisa provided training for long term care professionals and surveyors addressing the MDS, behavior management and reimbursement strategies. She has taught seminars on the MDS, Work Force Retention Strategies, Physical Restraint Reduction and Fall Prevention. She is a certified Eden Associate and has completed training for INTERACT 2 and Team STEPPS which is an evidence-based teamwork system to improve communication and team work skills among health care professionals.

Debbie Jackson is the Vice President of Education and Clinical Services for IHCA and has held that position for over 12 years. Before coming to the Association, Debbie worked for 20 years in the long term care profession as a Director of Nursing, Administrator, Regional Director and Assistant VP of Operations.

Continuing Education

Illinois nursing home administrators, licensed nurses and social workers will earn 5.0 clock hours of continuing education for participating in this session. The Illinois Health Care Association is approved as a sponsor of continuing education by the Illinois Department of Financial and Professional Regulation.
