July 17, 2017

Q: What should a facility do if when doing identified offender checks on a new resident, the sex offender and/or Department of Corrections website is down?

A: A facility should document the attempt, recording the date(s) and the time(s) checked. The facility should circle back and check the registries again periodically until they get the information they need to complete the review.